

Disability Tax Credit Alert

Do You Qualify for Federal Disability Tax Credits?
Find Out the Easy Way.

If you or a family member are experiencing a long term medical condition (for any reason) that markedly affects daily living activities, you may qualify for federal disability tax credits and significant refunds. Due to the effects of military service, many of you are experiencing conditions such as shortness of breath that affects walking, or post traumatic stress that significantly affects short term memory or the ability to focus. These are some qualifying factors. Other effects may qualify as well. For more information and to get a free Eligibility Assessment don't hesitate to call the Medical/Disability Tax Solutions Division of the Chartered Accounting Firm of Ken Lagasse Inc. We have a great deal of experience in helping people establish these tax credits. Call Toll free 1-866-829-4446 or go to www.disabilitytaxcredit.ca to complete and submit a simple online profile form. You will be provided with every possible chance to get positive results.

More details.

Need to Know

- Many people are still misinformed about their eligibility for Disability Tax Credits.
- Disability Tax Credit refund claims can be applied for up to ten years retroactively for eligible applicants.
- To maximize results, most people with low incomes can transfer eligible disability tax credits (and refunds) to a family member who pays taxes.
- Age and whether you can work is not a factor for qualifying.